Senator Newberry on the links.

Truman Handy Newberry, fifty-five, millionaire United States senator from Michigan, who apparently defeated Henry Ford in primaries that have since become notorious and who for a year or more was Rooseveit's secretary of the navy, will appear soon in federal court at Grand Rapids, Mich., to plead to the indictment charging him with guilty knowledge of the alleged fact that he was nominated and elected by fraud. Senator Newberry is a golf enthus-

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. - Mail Christmas parcels early and avoid disapointment.

This was the admicultion today of the posteffice department and is due to the fact that the coal strike has caused a reduction of train service on some railroads and further ourtailment will doubtless be necessary as the strike continues.

This condition makes the early mailing of Christmas parcels this year more than usually important says the department in a message to postmasters.
